Description

Spectacular pair of vases made circa 1910 from the "Ruby" series by master glassmaker François-Théodore Legras (1839-1916) in frosted, multi-layered glass. A continuous decoration of burgundy ivy leaves, acid-etched and enameled. Baluster shape with a slender neck on a foot entirely covered in foliage. Signed Legras within the decoration on one piece. In perfect condition, slight variations between the two pieces demonstrate the craftsmanship of these works. Height 16,9" Bibliography: François-Théodore Legras, Verrerie Artistique et Populaire Française by Dominique and Jean Vitrat; Jean-François and Marie-Françoise Michel, model with a similar decoration
