Description

An elegant, hand-knotted Oriental rug from the renowned Kashan manufactory, one of the most prestigious centers of Persian weaving. This rug features a sumptuous, finely drawn floral design, arranged around a beautiful medallion, set against a field of warm hues. The richly ornamented borders of stylized silk scrolls and flowers frame the whole with great harmony, demonstrating remarkable craftsmanship. Knotted in high-quality fine wool on a cotton warp. Its subtle color palette, combining reds and blues, reveals all the elegance of Persian productions from the mid-20th century. ? Origin: Kashan, Iran ? Circa 1950 ? Dimensions: 132 × 200 cm Technique: Hand-knotted wool on a cotton foundation Note: Some wool loss along the edge (Photos available upon request) My other rugs... SEE MY
