Description

Rare antique glazed ceramic tile with a hand-painted polychrome decoration depicting an elegant, stylized female figure within a refined floral setting. The design, both naive and expressive, reflects an early decorative aesthetic with folk and artisanal influences. The glaze displays a beautiful patina of age with a network of fine cracks, lending the piece its character and authenticity. The reverse, unglazed and marked by age, testifies to its early production. A collector's item, ideal for wall display, a showcase, or integration into a historical or bohemian interior design project. Dimensions: Height 21 cm × Width 16 cm. A unique piece with timeless charm.
