

Pair Of Bohemian Bells Enameled With Gold - 19th Century (circa 1800)

2 250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Crystal

Description

A pair of Bohemian crystal bells in purple, dating from the 1800s. Each bell is richly decorated with fine gold enamel, forming delicate golden floral motifs that stand out elegantly against the translucent purple background. The bells are topped with finely crafted gilt metal handles, highlighting the refinement and craftsmanship characteristic of 19th-century Bohemian glassmaking. The pair is distinguished by the harmony of its proportions, the depth of its color, and the quality of its gilt decoration. Dimensions: 25 cm (height) x 18 cm (diameter)
