Description

This rug, originating from Iranian Kurdistan, measures 120 cm wide by 203 cm long. It features a beautiful design of octagonal medallions, a motif found on a particular type of Bakhtiar rug, which itself contains stylized plant motifs. This mid-20th-century rug's design is similar to that of some Caucasian rugs; indeed, each medallion is adorned with kochaks, ram's horns. Blue and red are prominent, making this rug a vibrant and colorful piece. The colors are fresh and bright. It shows slight wear across its surface, consistent with its age (circa 1950).
Dimensions: Width: 120 cm (47") x Length: 203 cm (80"). This rug has been professionally and ecologically cleaned. FREE SHIPPING WITHIN FRANCE, as with all our rugs! FR EUR0 / EUR EUR25 WORLD EUR50 For any inquiries,
