Description

A Bohemian white crystal glassware set, dating from the 19th century, comprising a decanter and a matching glass. The set is richly decorated with polychrome enamel enhanced with gilding, depicting delicate naturalistic scenes with birds and butterflies, typical of Bohemian glass art of this period. The decanter is distinguished by its finely crafted handle and the exquisite hand-painted decoration, highlighting remarkable craftsmanship. The floral and plant motifs, combined with the gold highlights, lend great elegance and visual harmony to the set.
