Description

Giltwood Mirror with Parquet Frames - 18th Century, with Pediment. Superb 18th-century parquet mirror in finely carved and gilt wood. This remarkable mirror features an elegant, richly ornamented pediment, characteristic of the decorative refinement of the 18th century. The central mirror is framed by side and top parquet frames, adding depth and light to the whole. The antique gilding, with its warm and authentic patina, highlights the quality of the carving and the craftsmanship of the period. A charming decorative piece, ideal for enhancing a classic interior or adding a touch of historical elegance to a contemporary decor. Some minor losses to the gilding are visible in the photos.
