Description

This large torch holder is much more than a simple decorative object: it is a work of art in its own right, combining the timeless elegance of the mid-20th century with the artisanal craftsmanship of a bygone era. At the heart of this majestic piece, a Nubian figure in carved, painted, and gilded wood dominates the scene with a presence that is both powerful and graceful. His pose, one knee resting on a mound, evokes a posture that is both noble and serene, as if frozen in time. This sculptural detail lends a narrative dimension to the object, inviting us to imagine the stories and cultures that inspired its creation. The Nubian supports an imposing torch, composed of ten flames in gilded and patinated metal. Each flame, now carefully electrified, diffuses a warm and enveloping light, transforming this object into a
