

Moroccan Berber Rug From The Azrou Region

1 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Length : 330

Width : 245

Description

Rare Moroccan rug from the Middle Atlas Mountains in Morocco. This rug appears to have been woven around 1930 in the Azrou region during Prosper Ricard's Moroccan rug revival program. The wool is undyed except for the red, which was achieved using a fine madder root. In superb condition.
