Description

The Mountain, circa 1897. Color lithograph. Dimensions: Composition: approx. 54.5 × 83 cm; Sheet: approx. 62.5 × 88.5 cm. The Mountain, a rare and emblematic lithograph by Henri Rivière, illustrates his work on landscape at the end of the 19th century. This work reflects his explorations inspired by Japonisme and by a careful, almost scientific observation of nature, where the mountain is treated as a geological form structured by successive planes and flat areas of color. Very good overall condition. The image is in perfect condition and the colors are remarkably fresh. There is a small spot in the sky, visible in the photographs and also present in them. The margins are not torn but show some soiling along the edges. Please refer carefully to the photographs and their accuracy, as the images are
