Description

The Institute and the City, 1900. Original color lithograph. Published by Eugène Verneau, Paris. Plate from the series Parisian Landscapes. Dimensions: Image: approx. 52.7 × 82.2 cm. Sheet: approx. 64.5 × 90 cm. Description: An emblematic lithograph by Henri Rivière depicting a view of the site of the Institut de France and the Île de la Cité in Belle Époque Paris. This plate is part of the famous Parisian Landscapes series, created in 1900, and fully illustrates the artist's mastery of color lithography. The composition is based on a rigorous construction of successive planes and the use of flat areas of color, offering a modern yet poetic interpretation of the Parisian urban and monumental landscape. Condition: There is some soiling in the margins. The plate is in excellent condition and the colors are
