Description

Elegant chinoiserie-decorated mirror, made in the first half of the 20th century, inspired by 18th-century orientalising models. The shaped wooden frame, finished in dark green lacquer, is finely enriched with hand-painted gilt decoration depicting Oriental-inspired scenes: figures in traditional dress, pagoda-style architecture, stylised foliage and floral motifs. The upper crest features a refined figurative scene, adding movement and decorative appeal to the piece. The central mirror plate is original to the period (showing normal signs of age) and is set within an inner border decorated with gilt geometric and floral patterns. The lively outline and well-balanced proportions make this mirror a highly decorative object, suitable for both classic interiors and eclectic or contemporary settings. A
