Description

Wall Console with Mirror - Wrought Iron and Marble - 20th Century An elegant wall console topped with a mirror, crafted from wrought iron with scrollwork decoration and gilt accents. The piece boasts a refined and balanced design, characteristic of 20th-century decorative work, combining lightness of line with rich detail. The elongated mirror, with its delicately shaped top, is framed by a wrought iron structure adorned with openwork motifs. The console features a half-moon marble top with beautiful natural hues, adding both elegance and functionality. A piece that is both decorative and practical, ideal for an entryway, hallway, or small space, it integrates perfectly into a classic, neoclassical, or eclectic interior. In very good overall condition, with a harmonious patina consistent with its age.
