Description

A two-part Louis XVI style buffet in light walnut, dating from the late 19th century (circa 1880-1900). The front features five doors, one of which is glazed, and two drawers in the lower section. The piece is topped with a griotte marble slab. The front is richly decorated with abundant carved motifs, typical of the Louis XVI style. The central section has a mirrored interior, adding depth and elegance. It rests on toupie feet.
