Description

Important two-part buffet in solid walnut, richly carved, Renaissance/19th century style. This high-quality piece is distinguished by the elegance of its proportions and the finesse of its hand-carved decoration. The upper section features two glazed doors framed by finely ornamented uprights, surmounted by a carved pediment decorated with a hunting trophy, emphasizing the noble and decorative character of the whole. The interior is fitted with shelves offering ample storage or display space. The lower section opens with two solid doors and two drawers, adorned with highly carved panels depicting animal and plant motifs. The curved sides, decorated pilasters, and molded base attest to meticulous and finely crafted cabinetmaking. An authentic piece with a warm patina, showing
