Description

Henri Malfroy - Les Martigues. A superb signed oil on canvas depicting a sunlit view of the port of Martigues. Henri Malfroy displays his full talent as a colorist, delicately capturing the light of the South of France. On the sun-drenched quay, a few figures enliven the scene, while in the center, an elegant white sailboat stands out against the silvery blues of the sea. To the right, the pastel facades and the small inn under its striped awning convey the peaceful atmosphere of the Provençal village. The light palette - dominated by blues, ochres, and pinks - and the vibrant brushstrokes recall the Southern Post-Impressionist tradition. A luminous, harmonious, and lively work, typical of Malfroy's style, celebrating the Mediterranean and its unique light.
