

Edwardian Airplane Charm Pendant By Cartier, 1910, Patriotic Charm

1 230 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Platinum

Description

Cartier 1910 airplane charm in platinum and diamonds. This pendant depicts a biplane designed in France and widely used during the First World War as a reconnaissance or bomber aircraft. The plane is set with small, flat diamonds. Antique charm, circa 1910, made by Cartier as a patriotic piece. Unsigned. Mascarón hallmark (applied later) Height (including bail): 1.5 cm - Width: 1.4 cm Note: a "machine gun" model is presented in In the beginning was the line, by Olivier Bachet, p. 48; The creation of such jewelry by Cartier, " platinum pendants, " is also mentioned. [...] featuring machine guns, airplanes, or the famous 75mm gun. " p.53 Condition: scratches from use Weight: 0.77 gr*The antique chain is not sold with the jewel*

Dealer

Maison Mohs

Antique & Vintage jewelry

- sur rendez-vous -

Paris 75004