Porcelain Plate, Ginori Manufactory, Doccia, Early 19th Century

300 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : cm 24,5

Description

Polychrome central view on a white ground depicting Saint Mark in Florence, with a blue border and gilt edging. This plate belongs to the 'vedute' series, produced by the Ginori manufactory between 1792 and 1837, under the direction of Carlo Leopoldo Ginori. This type of painting was the prerogative of the painter Ferdinando Ammannati, active in Doccia from 1808 to 1823.

Dealer

Antichità D'Andrea

Antiquités

Mobile : 335236443

Via della Scrofa, 116/116A

Roma 00186