Description

Decorative sculpture representing a boxing glove, made of red glazed ceramic, signed under the base JC Peiré - Made in France - Quite a rare piece. This work is characterized by a powerful sculptural modeling, with rounded and stylized forms, typical of French decorative creations from the 1950s to 1980s. The bright, glossy, and deep red glaze highlights the volumes of the piece. The lacing accentuates the realism and provides an elegant graphic contrast. French production attributed to the ceramist JC Peiré, renowned for his original and expressive decorative objects, at the crossroads of sculpture and design. A striking decorative object, ideal for a contemporary ceramic collection, a designer interior, or for a collector of unusual sports-related objects. Good overall condition
