Description

Large pair of engraved crystal decanters decorated with floral garlands. Original faceted stoppers. Good overall condition, some minor scratches from use. Early 20th century, circa 1910. Dimensions with stoppers: H 31 and 30 cm, without stoppers: 25 and 24 cm, Diameter approximately 13 cmIn the early 20th century, a pair of crystal carafes naturally found their place on tables. They were used to present water, wine or sometimes liqueurs (depending on its size). Cut or engraved crystal, a noble material reserved for a high social class, caught the light of lamps and candles, thus highlighting all the refinement of tableware.
