Description

Superb early 19th-century handcrafted item, for a dairy or cheese shop, a beautiful piece in excellent condition. The large, 30cm diameter brass bowl, hemmed, is fitted with two wrought iron handles riveted with copper. Beautifully pierced, symmetrically arranged, with hundreds of holes hand-drilled... Good condition, no flaws, but normal wear for an antique item, very discreet small dents. I have made a great effort to clean it; some cleaning remains to be done.
