Description

A very elegant Louis XV style desk lamp, crafted from finely chased gilt bronze, resting on a circular griotte red marble base. The undulating stem is richly adorned with a winged figure, accompanied by rocaille motifs and foliage. The lower section features a stylized fish/dolphin motif, typical of the rocaille style. The sinuous arm supports a pleated lampshade in light fabric, embellished with decorative gathers. (Fabric needs replacing) This lamp reflects the style of Léon Messagé, a renowned French sculptor and bronze worker active at the end of the 19th century, known for his refined decorative creations blending female or mythological figures, putti, and naturalistic elements. His highly sought-after works are characterized by exceptional craftsmanship and an elegance
