Description

This solid bronze vase is an exceptional work of art, created by the Italian sculptor and ceramicist Alfredo Biagini (1886-1952). The object is distinguished by its medal patina, which gives it an antique yet timeless appearance. The piece is adorned with two lionesses, one of which is depicted in relief, creating a striking trompe-l'oeil effect. The fineness of the details and the precision of the sculpture testify to the artist's talent and technical mastery. The lioness in relief seems almost to leap from the vase, adding a dynamic and lifelike dimension to the work. The animals' muscles are sculpted with such precision that they appear almost real, capturing the power and grace of these majestic creatures. The medal patina adds depth and richness to the bronze surface, highlighting the finest details of the
