Description

Ceramic teapot designed by Pierre Casenove for Salins Studio in the 1980s. This model embodies a revisited Art Deco aesthetic, characteristic of the Memphis movement of the 1980s, with strong architectural lines and a bold geometric composition. The teapot is light gray with a glazed finish. It consists of two parts: the main body and the lid. Note: - a small chip inside the lid, not visible once in place and not affecting the overall stability (see photos). Approximate dimensions: - Width: 27 cm - Height: 20 cm. Salins mark visible on the base.
