

Long Necklace Of Irregular Pink Baroque Natural Freshwater Pearls

220 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Pearl

Length : 160

Description

Sumptuous, long vintage sautoir necklace from the 1980s to early 2000s, featuring natural, baroque, irregular freshwater cultured pearls, approximately 8mm in diameter and 1cm in length. These pearls have a beautiful pinkish iridescence and a magnificent luster. The pearls are of very high quality. Strung on double cotton thread, handcrafted, with knots between each pearl to prevent breakage, this is a high-end piece of jewelry. Approximately 160cm in total length, it can be worn as three strands. In very good overall condition, with a few very discreet natural imperfections on some pearls. Approximately 155g.
