Description

Cecile HERTZ-EYROLLES (1875-1974)
Woman and Child by the Fire Circa 1910 Oil on heavy cardboard, studio sale stamp on the front 40.5 x 31.5 cm Attractive gilt frame One of Eugène Carrière's favorite students, Cecile HERTZ-EYROLLES was the subject of an exhibition at the gallery in February 2025. The catalogue, including a lengthy biography, will be given to the buyer! This interior scene depicting the artist's daughter on her nanny's lap, drying herself by the fire, can be dated to around 1910. The artist, married in 1906, primarily painted interior scenes during this period, depicting her life as a young mother. The paintings from this happy time are imbued with tenderness and painted in a soft chromatic range dominated by grays and pinks.
