Description

We offer this splendid pair of vintage Italian lanterns from the 20th century (circa 1990s). Please note their unique and refined design! The hexagonal structure is made of gold-plated metal with a polished finish, each side featuring finely cut glass. Decorative scroll arms create an eye-catching accent at the top. Each lantern is equipped with three bulbs for excellent illumination. When lit, the light illuminates the structure's lines and accentuates the gold plating, creating a truly unique effect. Perfect for illuminating a hallway, entryway, stairwell, or any room in your home where you need a seamless design. Please note that the height of the lanterns without the chain is approximately 52 cm / 20.47 inches.
