Description

A pair of watercolor paintings depicting views of Venice by H el ene des Ylouses. An artist from the early 20th century, she was the youngest daughter of Arthur Henri des Ylouses (1846-1912), a renowned painter and sculptor of the late 19th century. The paintings are of exceptional quality, showcasing the artist's great skill and fluid technique. The original colors are remarkably fresh. The gondolas are depicted in two slightly different styles, with contrasts but both possessing a certain charm. This unique pair offers a beautiful decorative symmetry.
Dimensions: 28 x 19 cm and 20 x 12 cm.
