

Large Modern Raku Lamp In Beige And Brown Keramos Sèvres - René Hénon [...]

500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Ceramic

Diameter : 26

Height : 26

Description

Magnificent and very rare, large vintage lamp from the 1930s-1950s in the style of Jean Besnard, signed by René Hénon or another Keramos ceramist (Dakon, Josef Lorenzl, Michael Powolny, Rudolf Podany, Dora Langer, Hertha Bucher, Wiener Werkstätte, etc.), Sèvres, France. Raku crackle-glazed ceramic, Modern, Japanese-inspired style, very elegant. Shaped like a large, flared, corolla-like vase with a small round base. Beige color with gray crackle glaze, a band at the top with dark brown horizontal grooves, and the base of the lamp is also dark brown. A rare or unique, handcrafted piece. 26.8 cm total height, 26 cm maximum diameter, approximately 13-14 cm diameter for the base. Very good overall condition, a small chip on the rim, possibly an enamel flaw, and a small,

Dealer

Le Gai Fouillis

Antiques and flea online market.

Paris 75012

discreet stain under the rim. There are also a few other minor manufacturing defects, including beige enamel stains on the dark band. Possibly rewired more recently, but functional. European plug, gold-tone plastic socket for a large screw-in bulb, cord length 1.90-2m. Sold without a bulb. Approximately 2.450g. Electrical safety information: In accordance with Articles L 111-1 and L 221-1-1 of the French Consumer Code, this is a used item; verification and connection must be carried out by a qualified professional.