Description

Period: Late 19th century. Material: Silver-plated metal. Dimensions: 62 × 51 cm. Description: Decorative silver-plated metal tray, adorned in its center with a heraldic design combining the arms of the Harcourt and La Rochefoucauld families, surmounted by the crown of a Duke and Peer of France. This tray is linked to the marriage of Henri d'Harcourt (1864-1908), 10th Duke of Harcourt, Captain, General Councillor of Calvados, and Marie de La Rochefoucauld (1871-1952), celebrated on July 27, 1892, in Paris. The piece was made to commemorate this union. Significance: Object related to French noble heraldry of the late 19th century. Presence of both family coats of arms and the ducal crown. Large size (62 × 51 cm). Good overall condition, with patina from use and normal marks related to
