Description

A Louis Philippe period Burgundian buffet in walnut, opening with two wide doors at the front, surmounted by two drawers in the frieze. The handsome front is punctuated by uprights with engaged columns resting on turned ball feet, typical of 19th-century French furniture. The doors are adorned with molded panels with projecting frames, highlighting the beautiful wood grain. Original brass keyhole escutcheons and hardware. The interior offers ample storage space. In very good overall condition, with an antique patina, signs of use, and slight marks of age without any structural damage. A sound and stable piece. Carefully crafted with harmonious proportions, ideal for a dining room, living room, or any interior with character. Period: 19th century. Dimensions: H 99 x W 156 x D 57 cm
