Description

A Louis XVI Period Molded Walnut Salon Set, Circa 1780. A sublime Louis XVI period molded and carved walnut salon set, comprising six armchairs and two chairs. These seats have straight, curved backs, fully upholstered in caning and removable seat cushions covered in striped fabric. Their curved armrests with scrolls rest on concave arm supports. They stand on tapered legs with fluted, rusticated molding. Their stretchers are slightly undulating, and the connecting blocks are decorated with rosettes. The tops of their backs are carved with small flowers. Comfortable and stable. Furniture of exceptional quality craftsmanship, with clean and elegant lines. These chairs combine practical utility, thanks to their wide and comfortable seats, with a superb visual appeal thanks to their elegant and
