Description

Piedmontese Chest of Drawers - 18th Century, crafted in walnut wood, with refined inlays in light woods forming shaped decorative motifs. Structure with four drawers, featuring finely inlaid fronts.

Panelled sides and shaped feet, with a sobrious and elegant line, typical of Piedmontese production of the period.

The top shows a fine original patina, consistent with the age.

Good overall condition, with signs of wear consistent with the age and authenticity of the piece.

The piece requires conservative restoration.
