Description

An elegant pair of Empire-style gilt bronze wall sconces, dating from the 19th century. Each sconce features two scrolled arms. The central decoration is adorned with crossed arrows, feathers, and laurel leaves, emblems characteristic of the Empire style inspired by Antiquity. The gadrooned candle holders support faux candles, and the whole piece displays fine chasing and a warm gilding. A French decorative work from the 20th century, ideal for a classic interior, living room, entryway, or library. In very good overall condition, with functional wiring. Delivery within mainland France: EUR80. Contact us for more information.
