A "large" Acrobats" Cup And Saucer - China, 18th Century, Qianlong Period

650 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 13,6cm

Height : 4,6cm

Description

A porcelain cup and saucer decorated in Famille Rose enamels, with a lobed rim, depicting two jugglers and a tight-rope walker. China, 18th century Qianlong period (1736-1795) Diameter (saucer): 13.9 cm Height (cup): 4.6 cm. This decoration is uncommon: it is executed in Famille Rose enamels in the manner of so-called "Mandarin" wares. It departs from the usual garden-scene decorations of human figures, and belongs rather to a narrative register. For a set with the same decoration but smaller size, see :- National Gallery of Victoria, Melbourne, no. 1903B.a-b-D5.- Rijksmuseum, Amsterdam, no. BK-AM-32-C. Provenance: - Luis Alegria, Porto. Excellent condition, a tiny chip on the foot. More information and photos available upon request.
