

Wooden Modular Revolving Bookcase, Italy 1960s

1 050 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Mahogany

Width : 35

Height : 95

Depth : 35

Description

This is a beautiful and sophisticated mid-century piece of furniture. The distinctive 1960s Italian design is evident in this revolving bookcase. Made of wood veneer, it features modular shelves that extend vertically, offering a total of five levels. It shows no signs of manufacturing, but the quality of the material and design are excellent. Its design is also inspired by similar pieces by the famous Italian designer Gianfranco Frattini. With five available shelves, this freestanding revolving bookcase, although designed for books, can also serve as an excellent display for a collection of precious objects such as small vases or ceramics. Pictured, it is paired with a stunning collection of Murano glass vases, making this bookcase a focal point of the room. The available shelf space is:
Height 20 cm / 7.87 inches - Depth 19.5 cm / 7.67

Dealer

Mobili del passato

Furniture and furnishing accessories from the 17th century to 20th century

Tel : +393405898093

Mobile : +393355853461

strada provinciale 35bis dei giovi 41

Bosco Marengo 15062

inches. Also consider that it is equipped with wheels at the base which add a distinctive functionality and allows you to turn it or move it quickly if you need it. In excellent condition with minimal signs of wear consistent with its age. You can immediately place it in your home.