Description

Tinplate toy representing a rowboat, featuring its original bright yellow lithograph outlined in red. This model was made in Germany, authenticated by the marmot logo of the Gottfried Sohn (GOSO) factory in Nuremberg, the historic center of toy manufacturing between the two World Wars. It rests on four solid blue metal wheels and retains its bow tow ring as well as its central crossbeam drilled to accommodate a mast. In original condition with a superb patina of age, showing some paint chips and traces of oxidation that do not detract from its authenticity. A characterful piece for collectors of nautical toys or Nuremberg miniatures. o Shipping: Free for France and Corsica o Careful Packaging - Tracked Shipping within 24/48 hours o Payment: Credit Cards, Bank Transfers, or PayPal
