Description

A very pretty, unstamped Limoges porcelain cachepot with a pale celadon glaze, square in shape with molded panel decoration, resting on four small cabriole feet, in a Rococo style. Vintage 20th century, circa 1920-1950. Glazed interior. Approximately 18cm high, 17cm wide and deep, with a 14x14cm opening and an interior height of 13cm. In very good overall condition with a tiny glaze flaw on one side, as well as a slight, discreet chip on the rim, which does not affect its appearance. Approximately 1kg.
