

A Famille Rose/verte Plate Decorated With A Butterfly - China 18th Yongzheng Period

350 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 22,7cm

Description

A porcelain plate with Famille Rose and Famille Verte enamels, featuring a central decoration of peonies and a butterfly. The border is decorated with precious objects. The distinctive feature of this plate is the balanced use of both Famille Rose and Famille Verte enamels. China 18th Yongzheng period (1723-1735) Diameter: 22.7 cm For a similar decoration on an identical pair of dishes, see :- Christie's, New York, Mandarin and Menagerie: The Sowell Collection and Chinese Export Art From Various Owners, 26 January 2015, lot 28. A few very minor chips and glaze losses to the rim. More information and photos available upon request.

Dealer

Galerie Drake

Chinese Porcelain & Chinese Works of Art

Mobile : 0689483023

Paris 75011