Fashion Doll - Parisian - Pierre-françois Jumeau

1 500 EUR

Signature : Pierre-François Jumeau

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Biscuit

Height : 69 cm

Description

Parisian Fashion Doll Attributed to Pierre-François Jumeau France, 19th century Fashion doll, known as a "mannequin doll," attributed to the Pierre-François Jumeau factory. It features a bisque head and collar with a swiveling head, a closed mouth, blue sulfide eyes, and molded, unattached ears. The doll bears no apparent inscriptions or numbering, either on the head or the body. - Swivel head and bisque collar - Closed mouth - Blue sulfide eyes - Molded ears - Leather body (lambskin) - Gusseted joints - Detached fingers Condition The leather body is in used condition, with openings at one joint revealing the internal stuffing, and one leather arm detached from the body. The piece remains restorable. An examination under a lamp in raking light confirms the absence of cracks or

Dealer

Blinks
Antiquités
Tel : +41792070653
Mobile : +41792070653 - WhatsApp
Fax : Instagram : @blinks_gallery / @collectionbiscuitslu

Route de la Corniche 10
Riex 1097

firing defects, both on the head and on the biscuit collar. Please refer carefully to the photographs, as these form an integral part of the description.