Description

A superb sideboard with a sculptural and graphic design, characteristic of the modernist aesthetic of the 1970s. This piece is distinguished by its facade, punctuated with geometric cabochons in relief, finely integrated into a metal structure with an elegant patina, enhanced by beveled mirrors that capture and diffuse light with refinement. The central mirrored doors add depth and sophistication, while the whole rests on architectural legs, asserting a strong and decorative presence. The understated yet contrasting top perfectly balances the visual richness of the facade. Remarkable decorative work. Noble materials and meticulous finishes. A statement piece, ideal for a contemporary interior, a revisited Art Deco style, or a 20th-century design collector. Both functional and sculptural,
