Description

Exquisite Art Nouveau hand candlestick (early 20th century). This bronze piece with a gilt patina features a highly original, dynamic naturalistic design. The handle, imitating a plant stem, is adorned with two finely sculpted animals: a small climbing monkey seems to be chasing a squirrel perched at the top. The base is delicately chased with vine leaves, and the candle holder is shaped like a flower corolla. The object has a beautiful original patina and an antique screw fitting under the base. It is in perfect condition, with no deformation. Weight: 215 grams. Shipping: Free for France and Corsica. Careful packaging - Tracked shipping within 24/48 hours. Payment methods: Credit cards, bank transfers, or PayPal.
