of Monsieur de Gorville," concerning the affairs in which he was employed by the Court from 1642 to 1698. This complete original edition in two volumes is by Jean Hérault, Baron de Gouville, a French memoirist, first Valet de Chambre to La Rochefoucauld, then Intendant of the Army of Catalonia (1653). He then entered the service of Nicolas Fouquet (1655-1661). Condemned to death in 1661, he was forced into exile in the Netherlands. In 1669, Prince Louis II de Condé obtained letters of pardon for him and appointed him Intendant...
