

8-legged Center Table - Cherry Wood - 19th Century

1 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Solid wood

Height : 73

Description

19th-century solid cherry wood center table, featuring an unusual base of eight turned legs ending in their original bronze casters.

This "English-style" model offers exceptional versatility: Closed position: A compact console or center table with two lateral drop-leaves. Open position: A large circular tabletop. Maximum extension: Thanks to its telescopic runner system and central support legs, it can accommodate several leaves (included) to transform into a large banquet table. Provenance: Former furniture piece from the University of Paris VI (Pierre and Marie Curie). A sound, robust, and finely crafted piece of furniture that has retained an authentic patina of age.

The eight-leg base ensures perfect stability, even when fully extended. The runners are in perfect
