Description

This exquisite antique box, crafted in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, is a beautiful example of decorative art and functionality. The box is made of thick, carefully polished glass, giving the piece depth and a noble luster. All the edges of the glass are framed with an elegant brass border, highlighting its refinement and adding a further touch of sophistication to the design. Inside the box, there is a small hook for hanging earrings--a detail that underscores the object's practicality and functionality. The interior of the box is lined with dark velvet, adding a special charm while protecting the jewelry.
