

Antique Anthropomorphic Wood Carving, Folk Art Circa 1900 / Machine Tools

550 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Oak

Description

Quick Description: A striking antique sculpture, folk art circa 1900. Made of oak with metal elements, it retains traces of its original polychromy. Originally removed from a woodworking machine, it has a lovely patina from use. While there are signs of previous restorations, the piece remains very sturdy. It is beautifully presented on a solid wood base with a black patina. A highly decorative piece, somewhere between outsider art and folk art.

Dimensions: 54cm high, 22cm wide, 27cm deep, weighing 9.5kg. Price: EUR550. Additional photos and similar items can be found on our website: Old-School-Bazaar.com
