Description

Beautiful large vintage wooden model from the 1950s-70s, depicting a Chilean church, "Iglesia Nerco Chiloé Chile". Made entirely of wood, with green paper windows at the front and textured glass windows on the sides. Exquisite detail work. 32cm long, 25cm wide, 35cm high. There is some damage to the matte bell tower (or missing cross), a missing tile at the rear near the bottom of the roof, and a few other minor, discreet signs of age and light patina. Overall, very good condition despite these two small missing pieces. Approximately 700g.
