Description

A delightful Limoges porcelain duo, produced by Haviland and Castel Limoges for Armagnac Chabot, based on a Sandoz design. Each decanter features a duck or goose in white porcelain, decorated with feathers and an eye in transfer prints in brick, pale green, and brown tones. These are two limited editions. The decanter by Castel Limoges, hand-numbered 8509, is one of 15,000 pieces and is dated 1987. It also has a hand-numbered edition, 3.88. The miniature bottle is stamped Haviland Limoges on the base. The decanter is 29cm high at its highest point, approximately 13-14cm wide at its widest point, and approximately 16cm deep. It is in perfect condition, with the pouring stopper present under the lid. The miniature bottle is 13.5cm high, approximately 7cm wide, and approximately 8cm
