Magnificent and very large antique Kirman rug from Iran, originating from one of the most prestigious Persian weaving regions, renowned for centuries for the finesse of its designs and the elegance of its floral compositions. This rug features a sumptuous, deep red field, enlivened by a delicately crafted central medallion, framed by a wide border richly decorated with polychrome floral motifs in shades of blue, ivory, and beige. The overall effect is a remarkable balance between decorative power and great visual harmony. Woven entirely by hand, this Kirman is distinguished by the quality of its wool, the precision of its design, and the gentle patina of age, which lends it an authentic charm and an incomparable decorative presence.
