Description

Silver-plated metal serving tray with handles, neoclassical decoration. This rectangular silver-plated metal serving tray with rounded corners features two richly sculpted neoclassical handles decorated with scrolls, leaves, and mascarons. The rim is finely chased with a repeating frieze pattern, typical of late 19th-century pieces. It has a beautiful overall shine, with visible signs of wear and micro-scratches consistent with its age and use, but no significant dents or deformations. A decorative and functional piece, ideal for an elegant table, bar, or as a serving tray. Period: Late 19th century. Material: Silver-plated metal. Style: Neoclassical. Condition: Good overall condition, patina from use. Dimensions: 58 x 38
